

Antes de continuar, da clic en el siguiente enlace y escucha el podcast

Escucha la historia

Comprehension activity

Responda falso o verdadero de acuerdo con la historia.

1. Tim found a blue ball in the garden.
True
False
2. The ball went into the forest because Tim threw it over the fence.
True
False
3. Tim's dad suggested buying a new ball.
True
False
4. Tim found his red ball behind a big tree.
True
False
5. Tim helped a squirrel that was stuck under a branch.
True
False

Elija la opción que responda a la pregunta adecuadamente.

6. What is the name of the town where Tim lived?
 - a) Redville
 - b) Greenfield
 - c) Blueburg
 - d) Yellow town
7. Who did Tim live with?
 - a) His mom, dad, and brother
 - b) His mom, dad, and sister Lucy

- c) His grandparents
 - d) His aunt and uncle
8. Why did Tim go into the forest?
- a) To play with the animals
 - b) To find his lost red ball
 - c) To explore the tall trees
 - d) To meet the birds
9. Who did Tim ask about his red ball in the forest?
- a) A rabbit
 - b) A deer
 - c) A squirrel
 - d) A fox
10. What did Tim do when he heard a small voice in the forest?
- a) He ran away
 - b) He hid behind a tree
 - c) He helped a bird stuck under a branch
 - d) He sang with the bird

Script

The Great Adventure of Tim and His Red Ball

Once upon a time, in a small town named Greenfield, there was a young boy named Tim. Tim was a happy boy, always full of energy and ready for an adventure. He lived with his mom, dad, and his little sister, Lucy, in a beautiful house with a big garden.

One sunny day, Tim found a red ball in the garden. It was a bright, shiny, and bouncy ball. Tim loved it. He played with it all day. He threw it, kicked it, and even tried to bounce it as high as he could. The red ball became Tim's favorite toy.

One day, while Tim was playing with the red ball in the garden, he kicked it a little too hard. The ball bounced off the garden fence and went into the forest that was next to their house. Tim was sad. He looked at the forest. It was big and a little scary. But Tim wanted his red ball back. He decided to go into the forest to find his ball.

Tim told his mom and dad about the lost ball. His mom said, "Be careful, Tim. The forest is big. Don't go too far." His dad said, "Don't worry, Tim. We can buy a new ball." But Tim wanted his red ball. It was special.

So, Tim started his adventure. He walked into the forest, looking for his red ball. He saw tall trees, heard the birds singing, and even saw a squirrel. He said, "Hello, squirrel! Have you seen my red ball?" The squirrel didn't answer. It just ran up a tree.

Tim walked and walked. He looked under the bushes, behind the trees, but he couldn't find his red ball. He was a little scared, but he remembered his mom's words. He decided to go a little further.

Finally, after a long walk, he saw something red behind a big rock. It was his red ball! Tim was very happy. He ran to the rock, picked up his ball, and said, "I found you!"

Just as he was about to leave, he heard a small voice. It was a little bird. The bird was stuck under a small branch. It looked scared. Tim remembered how he felt when he lost his ball. He decided to help the bird.

He carefully lifted the branch and freed the bird. The bird chirped happily and flew away. Tim felt good. He had not only found his ball but also helped a new friend.

Tim returned home with his red ball. He told his mom, dad, and Lucy about his adventure. They were happy to see Tim safe and were proud of him for helping the bird.

From that day on, Tim always played with his red ball in the garden, but he never kicked it too hard. And whenever he saw a bird in the garden, he always remembered his great adventure and his little friend in the forest.

And so, Tim learned that every adventure, big or small, is an opportunity to make new friends and help others. And that's the most special thing about adventures.

Answer key

1. False
2. False
3. True
4. False
5. False
6. Greenfield

7. His mom, dad and sister Lucy
8. To find his lost red ball
9. A squirrel
10. He helped a bird stuck under a branch

