

Antes de continuar, da clic en el siguiente enlace y escucha el podcast

Escucha la historia

Comprehension activity

Elija la opción que responda a la pregunta adecuadamente.

1. Where did Lucy live?
  - a) Greenfield
  - b) Blueville
  - c) Red town
  - d) Yellowpark

2. What did Lucy's mother ask her to buy for dinner?
  - a) Fruits and bread
  - b) Meat and fish
  - c) Vegetables
  - d) Sweets and spices

3. Who did Lucy meet on her way to the market?
  - a) Her cousin
  - b) Her teacher
  - c) Tom
  - d) Her neighbor

4. What did Tom need to buy from the market?
  - a) Fruits and vegetables
  - b) Bread, milk, eggs, and cheese
  - c) Spices and sweets
  - d) Meat and fish

5. What did Lucy forget to buy initially from the market?
  - a) Tomatoes
  - b) Carrots
  - c) Onions
  - d) Potatoes

Ponga la palabra mencionada en el audio para responder a las siguientes preguntas:

6. What kind of girl was Lucy described as in the story?

---

7. What did Lucy carry with her to the market?

---

8. Which stall did Lucy and Tom visit to buy milk, eggs, and cheese?

---

9. What did Lucy almost forget to buy from the vegetable stall?

---

10. What did Lucy feel when she realized she had forgotten to buy something?

---

Script

The Great Shopping Adventure

Once upon a time, in a small town named Greenfield, there lived a young girl named Lucy. Lucy was a lively girl, always full of energy and curiosity. She loved going on adventures, big or small, and every day was a new adventure for her.

One sunny day, Lucy's mother asked her to go to the market. She needed some vegetables for dinner, and Lucy was excited to help. She took a basket and a list of things to buy: carrots, potatoes, onions, and tomatoes. Lucy had been to the market many times with her mother, but this was the first time she was going alone. It was a new adventure, and she was ready for it.

As she walked to the market, she saw her friend, Tom. Tom was going to the market too. His mother had given him a list of things to buy: bread, milk, eggs, and cheese. Lucy and Tom decided to go to the market together. They talked and laughed as they walked, making the journey more fun.

When they reached the market, they were amazed by the hustle and bustle. There were people everywhere, buying and selling, talking and laughing. There were stalls full of fruits and vegetables, bread and cheese, spices and sweets. The air was filled with the smell of fresh food and the sound of bargaining.

Lucy and Tom started their shopping adventure. They went to the vegetable stall and bought carrots, potatoes, onions, and tomatoes. They went to the bakery and bought bread. They went to the dairy stall and bought milk, eggs, and cheese. They checked their lists, making sure they had bought everything.

Just as they were about to leave, Lucy noticed something. She had forgotten to buy onions! She rushed back to the vegetable stall and bought the onions. It was a close call, but Lucy was glad she had checked her list one last time.

With their shopping done, Lucy and Tom walked back home. They were tired but happy. They had completed their mission, and they had had a great adventure. They talked about their adventure, laughing at the close call with the onions.

When Lucy reached home, she gave the basket to her mother. Her mother was surprised. Lucy had bought everything on the list, and she had done it all by herself. She was proud of Lucy. Lucy was proud of herself too. She had gone on a great adventure, and she had helped her mother.

That night, as Lucy ate the delicious dinner her mother had made with the vegetables she had bought, she thought about her adventure. She had learned a lot. She had learned to be responsible, to be careful, and to check her list twice. She had also learned that even a simple task like going to the market could be a great adventure.

And so, Lucy looked forward to more adventures, big or small, knowing that every day was a new opportunity to learn and grow. And every night, as she ate her dinner, she remembered her great shopping adventure, a simple task that had turned into a fun and exciting journey.

Answer key

1. a) Greenfield
2. c) Vegetables
3. c) Tom
4. b) Bread, milk, eggs, and cheese
5. c) Onions
6. Lively
7. Basket
8. Dairy stall
9. Onions

10. Rushed

